Intuitive & Interactive Healing: I believe healing is not a one-way street. You are as much responsible for healing yourself as I am in assisting you. Using my empathic / intuitive skills, I "listen" to what your energy is telling me you need. At the same time, you will listen as well and act on whatever your spirit or energy is guiding you to do. This could involve movement, vocalizations, energy healing or expressing yourself by speaking out loud whatever comes to mind. I highly recommend that if you are new to healing work and not sure what you want to do, please try an initial session of Intuitive & Interactive Healing.
